

DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES CASE MANAGER – Goochland Powhatan Community Services is seeking a Full-Time Developmental Services Case Manager. This position is responsible for providing case management services to support children and adults with Intellectual Disabilities (ID) and/or Developmental Disabilities (DD). Case management includes conducting assessments, developing person-centered plans, and assisting eligible consumers in accessing the most appropriate services to meet their individual needs. This is accomplished through linking, monitoring, documenting, coordinating resources, supportive counseling, and advocating for effective and responsive service provisions.

The GPCS application is required and available at www.gpcsb.org under “Job Opportunities.” Salary based on education and experience. GPCS is an Equal Opportunity Employer.