

Goochland Powhatan Community Services is seeking several Full-Time School based Mental Health Clinicians. The incumbent must be a licensed mental health professional, or license eligible.

This clinician's primary responsibility is to provide brief school-based services to children and adolescents who reside in either Goochland or Powhatan counties. This position would be housed in schools within the counties to provide services to students. The clinician is responsible for providing adjunctive case management and linkage to other resources that may be appropriate for clients and their families, including Departments of Social Services, Health Departments, county FAPT Teams, court services, and in home providers. There is also an option to see additional clients at the main Clinic if appropriate.

Although applicants already licensed are preferred, license eligible applicants may apply. Supervision toward licensure is provided.

Successful candidates for this position must possess a thorough working knowledge of the DSM criteria and have experience working with youth who are living with serious emotional disturbance and the results of trauma. Experience with substance use disorders is a plus. This position will require excellent verbal and written communication skills, proficient computer skills, including documentation in an electronic health record; and the ability to make independent decisions with minimal supervision.

The salary range is commensurate with education and experience and starts at $62,000 for license eligible and $68,000 for licensed.

Now offering a $2,500 signing bonus for new candidates! The signing bonus will be structured in two, gross, equal lump sum payments. The first $1,250 bonus payment will be issued on the last pay date of the month following the employee's orientation. The second $1,250 bonus payment will be issued on the last pay date of the month following the employee's six-month anniversary from the date of hire. Signing Bonus payments are subject to Federal, State, and Local taxes where applicable. GPCS reserves the right to withhold Signing Bonus payments due to potential job performance and/or dependability concerns*
